

Piano Masterclass with Stewart Goodyear

The Alberta Registered Music Teachers' Association invites advanced piano students (minimum grade 10) to apply to participate in a masterclass with Stewart Goodyear, whom the LA Times proclaimed to be "one of the best pianists of his generation." The masterclass will take place on Friday, October 27 at 2:45 pm – 4:00 pm, and is part of Music Conference Alberta (October 26-28) at the Sheraton Hotel in Red Deer, AB.

- There is a $10 participant fee. Participants (and one guardian) are granted a one day conference registration for Friday (student conference registration is valued at $60) by Music Conference Alberta. Participants are responsible for their own transportation and expenses.
- Applications are due September 15, 2017.
- Applicants will be confirmed by September 22, 2017. In the event that more applications are received than spots available, students will be chosen based on their repertoire. Participant fees will be refunded to those unable to participate.
- A maximum of 1 application per teacher will be accepted.
- Each student should have 20-25 minutes with Mr. Goodyear.
